trips are the same

HISTORY

Every inch of Israel is filled rich and diverse history. As you peel back the layers and get a chance to take steps towards understanding more about the land your connection with Israel will blossom. This trip will provide you an opportunity to create your own history as community.

Highlights

You will have the opportunity to see both traditional and non traditional sites. Walk through the holiest city in the world Jerusalem . Learn about the first Hebrew city and get a taste of the modern culture of Israel in Tel Aviv. Float in the dead sea, climb the waterfalls of Ein Gedi and see the sunrise on top of Masada. Speak about famous Zionist thinkers and see how the chalutzim lived on kibbutz as they drained the swamps and worked the land. Sail across the Kenneret and hike in the Golan Heights.

Plant trees as a community, and learn how olives are pressed and create your own olive oil to take home with you. Museums, wonderful Israeli food , Mediterranean-beach time, Shabbat in Israel, jeep tour , Jordan River hike and winery tour. are just some of the places and things you will see

CULTURE

The background image is a scenic view of a historic city, likely Jerusalem, featuring a large stone fortress or castle perched on a hill. The foreground is filled with lush greenery, including a large aloe vera plant and several red flowers. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and culturally rich.

Explore the sites sounds and tastes with a richness that only Israels history can produce. Wither enjoying a globally inspiring cuisine or an award winning wine selection . we invite you to savory every moment to last drop.

Your Involvement

We look to you to be a part of shaping this trip to meet the needs of your community both before and during the trip. We will ask you to select from a wide range of touring options to shape the itinerary so it is personalized. You will have the opportunity to take an active role with guiding different activities, reading and experiences along the way so everyone who wants can bring a part of themselves to the trip.

PEOPLEHOOD

“Peoplehood” is the knowledge-based sense of belonging and commitment to the Jewish people, its values, its big ideas, its potential, and to Israel, the expression of its national sovereignty. - Avraham Infeld
